

Your Comprehensive Nautique Community

PlanetNautique was formed in 2002 to fulfill a need for a Nautique community where people could share ideas, information, tips, and experiences they have encountered with their Nautiques. Since it began, PlanetNautique's userbase has been steadily growing, and as more people join, the quality and quantity of information continues to improve. We currently have over 1,000 members, and we invite you to join today. PlanetNautique is run by Nautique enthusiasts, and is a FREE site. Please visit www.planetnautique.com to join.

PlanetNautique features a front page where the latest information of interest to Nautique owners is posted. We also have a live chat room, a downloads area (where users can download owner's manuals for boats and accessories), and a PlanetNautique Store. Our most popular feature is, of course, the forums section. That is where users ask questions and share their knowledge of Nautiques.

While we are not affiliated with Correct Craft directly, we are in touch with them on a regular basis to make sure that our information is accurate. We also keep in touch with several key dealerships throughout the country.

We hope you'll to take a look at the site, and if you have any questions, please don't hesitate to e-mail one of the administrators.
