

McCLINTOCK AND SELSOR WIN JUNIOR MASTERS OVERALL TITLES

PINE MOUNTAIN, GA. (May 27, 2006)—In the final rounds of the 14th Annual Correct Craft Junior Masters Waterski and Wakeboard Tournament, Whitney McClintock claimed the female Overall Champion title for 2006, claiming first place in trick skiing, third in slalom skiing and third place in jumping. Nancy Chardin and Caroline Hensley placed second and third overall behind McClintock.

Hensley and Chardin placed second and third in tricks. In slalom, Evdokia Liakou placed first with a run of .5@35-off. Miranda Tiare and McClintock finished second and third. In junior women's jump, a new course record was broken by Alex Lauretano of 144 feet to claim first place followed by Chardin and McClintock.

Winning the junior men's Overall Champion title was Storm Selsor who also won second place in trick competition. Zack Worden and Martin Bartalsky earned second and third place overall.

In the junior men's tricks competition, Pierre Ballon won first place and Adam Pickos won third. In the slalom event, Stelio Merolla captured first place with Bernardo Graf and Matteo Luzzeri winning second and third. In the jump event, Stephan Critchley narrowly edged out Martin Bartalsky by one tenth of a meter and a total distance of 169 feet.

The junior men's wakeboard competition was dominated by Jimmy Lariche who scored 66.89 points followed by Nick Jones with a score of 51.46. Harley Clifford and Adam Errington, competing in their first Masters, finished the event in third and fourth place.
